PRESS RELEASE

May 3, 2008 2244 Hours

08-28213

On 5/3/08 at approximately 2244 hours, Redding Police Officers responded to the report of a stabbing victim inside the AM/PM Mini-Mart located at 4095 Railroad Avenue.

Upon arrival, officers located the victim, John Michael Lain, 31 years of Redding inside the store. Lain was suffering from several stab wounds to his upper torso. Lain was transported to Mercy Medical Center for emergency treatment. The injuries were later determined to be non-life threatening.

The suspect is described as a white male adult, approximately 30 years, 5'6" to 5'10", 165 lbs with shaved dark hair and tattoos on his forehead. The suspect was last seen wearing a black hooded sweatshirt with a white shirt underneath. The suspect ultimately fled the scene in a 90's model, dark colored, mid-size sedan with another unknown male subject.
