PRESS RELEASE

October 2, 2009 9:15 PM

Case #09-66008

On Friday, October 2, 2009 at 9:15 PM, police and medical units were dispatched to S. Market Street at Grange Street for a person who was stabbed.

The victim, Jeffrey Boyd, 40 years, of Redding, was found to have a laceration to his abdomen. He was conscious and the wound was not life threatening. He was transported by ambulance to Mercy Medical Center where he was treated and released.

Boyd said he was stabbed during an argument near the railroad tracks at the west end of Grange Street.

Boyd described his assailant as a white male adult with gray hair. He could not be more specific.

Redding Police officers, with the assistance of the California Highway Patrol helicopter, conducted an extensive search, but did not locate any witnesses or suspects.

Anyone with information on the incident is encouraged to notify the Redding Police Department.
