PRESS RELEASE

10-27-09 7:20 P.M.

09-71450

On 10-27-2009, at approx 7:20 p.m., Redding police officers were dispatched to Shasta Regional Medical Center for a patient who was reporting he had just been robbed. Victim Stover was contacted at the hospital where he was being treated for minor injuries.

Doug Stover, age 59 of Redding, said he was at the ATM machine at the Sierra Central Bank located at 1255 Yuba st. While at the ATM machine he was approached by two white male adults. The suspects shoved victim Stover against the ATM machine. As victim Stover turned to look at the suspect to his right, the suspect struck him in the head with a wooden stick. As victim Stover attempted to turn around, the suspect on his left punched him in the mouth knocking victim Stover to the ground. The suspects then took victim Stover's wallet and fled towards Pine St.

Redding Police officers searched the area for suspects and physical evidence. The incident will be forwarded to the RPD Investigation division for follow up.
