PRESS RELEASE

09-10675

February 17, 2009

1400 hrs.

On 02-17-09 at approximately 8:05 a.m., officers from the Redding Police Department responded to the 1600 block of Tehama Street in Redding, California in regard to an unresponsive male adult inside a vehicle. Upon arrival, officers determined that the subject was deceased and in fact had suffered a single gunshot wound. During the investigation, officers found a handgun in close proximity to where the subject was seated. This incident is still being investigated, but appears to be a suicide. The Shasta County Coroner's Office responded and took in possession the deceased subject and the vehicle he was located in. Identification of the deceased person is still pending due to the Shasta County Coroner making notification to next of kin.
