PRESS RELEASE

CASE: 09-14025

DATE: 03-04-09

(PURSUIT / DUI ARREST)

On Wednesday, March 4, 2009, at approximately 1:59 a.m. Redding Police Officer Renault attempted a traffic on a vehicle (Mercury sedan) for an equipment violation in the area of Cypress Avenue and the I-5 Freeway. The driver of this vehicle refused to yield, and proceeded to lead Officer Renault on a pursuit that ended on the southbound I-5 Freeway, approximately one mile south of Hooker Creek Road in Tehama County. This pursuit attained a maximum speed of 80 mph, and lasted approximately 25 minutes.

Assistance was provided by the Shasta County Sheriff's Department as well as the California Highway Patrol. With the use of a spike strip the Mercury sedan was forced to a safe stop.

The driver, who was identified as Daniel Paul Morris, 23 years of Anderson, was subsequently arrested for the charges of DUI, misdemeanor evading, driving under a suspended license, and for resisting arrest. He was ultimately booked at the Shasta County Jail.

Morris' only passenger, Cory Ray Ingle, 19 years, also from Anderson, was released with no charges pending.
