PRESS RELEASE

03/25/09 5:13 A.M.

09-19019 AS 17

On 03/25/09 at approximately 5:13 a.m. Redding Police Officers responded to 1700 Bishop Lane in regards to a residential robbery that had just occurred. Upon arrival, the officers had determined that the victim, identified as Ronald Adcock, 54 years, of Redding, had been robbed of an unknown amount of U.S. Currency and had also been assaulted. The victim had been sleeping in a detached garage of the residence when two suspects entered the same and began assaulting him. Adcock sustained injuries to his face and head area and was transported to the Mercy Hospital for treatment.

The victim indicated that the two suspects involved in this robbery were male white adults in their twenties. An extensive search by assisting officers and K-9 unit proved negative for the two suspects who fled the scene on foot.

Any information regarding this robbery contact Redding Police Department.
