On 06/24/2009 at 7:00am, law enforcement officers of the Redding Police Department, Shasta County Sheriff's Department, Shasta Interagency Narcotic Task Force, and the United States Marshal's Office served a search warrant at 18595 and 18597 Lloyd Lane in Anderson, California. The search warrant was obtained incident to information received by officers that marijuana was being cultivated at this location.

The following arrests were made: Shaun R. Gauthreaux, a 31 year-old documented gang member of Anderson, for felony child endangerment, resisting and obstructing a peace officer, and converting marijuana to hash oil by means of chemical extraction.

Donald A. Brooks, 33 years and Cindy L. Benno, 41 years, both of Anderson for possession of a stolen firearm and possession of a firearm by a person convicted of a specific misdemeanor charge which prohibits firearm possession.

A complaint request will be sought on an additional adult female for felony child endangerment and for converting marijuana to hash oil by means of chemical extraction. Shasta County Children and Family Services responded to the scene and took two children, ages three and five into temporary protective custody. Shasta County Code Enforcement also responded and issued several citations for building code violations.
