PRESS RELEASE

July 25, 2009 1:58 p.m.

09-48871

Redding Police Officers responded to the 4400 block of Westside Road regarding a male subject who fired a handgun inside his trailer. It was reported that the male was still at the location and was armed with a .22 caliber revolver.

Officers established a perimeter at the residence and made phone contact with the suspect, Ira Dunne, 49 years of Redding. Dunne was cooperative and followed directions to exit the trailer. Dunne was interviewed and admitted to firing a handgun at his television inside the residence because he was angry.

Dunne was subsequently arrested for reckless discharge of a firearm. The firearm and additional evidence of the shooting were located and collected. No one was injured during the event.
