On Saturday, August 15, 2009 at 7:50 A.M. the Redding Police Department received multiple reports of a traffic collision on Pine Street north of Placer Street. Officers responded to the scene and found a Dodge Caravan had collided with a parked AT & T line truck. The Redding Fire Department assisted other emergency medical services personnel with the extraction of the solo driver from the vehicle.

The female driver was northbound on Pine Street when she collided with the parked line truck. The driver was transported to Mercy Medical Center where she died as a result of her injuries sustained in the collision. Although both air bags deployed upon impact, Officers have not determined whether the driver was wearing a seatbelt at the time of the collision. The cause of the collision is under investigation.
