On Saturday, January 23, 2010 at approximately 11:00 p.m. Redding Police Officers observed a Ford Explorer drive through a signal controlled intersection on Churn Creek Road without stopping for the red light. Both the driver and passenger provided false names, but were ultimately identified as Steven Losievski 33 years of Anderson and Ronald Celano 47 years of Redding.

Officers determined that Losievski was a wanted parolee. During a search incident to arrest, they located approximately 3.5 grams of methamphetamine on his person. Losievski was booked at the Shasta County jail and charged with possession of a controlled substance for sale, providing false identification to a peace officer and a parole hold. Celano had an outstanding arrest warrant. He was booked on the warrant and for providing false identification to a peace officer.
