PRESS RELEASE

March 11, 2010 9:00 P.M.

On Thursday, March 11, 2010 Officers from the Redding Police Department and an Investigator from the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control conducted minor decoy compliance checks at twenty two Redding area businesses. In this type of operation a minor decoy, under the direct supervision of the officers, attempted to purchase an alcoholic beverage from the licensed establishments.

The minor decoy purchased an alcoholic beverage at two businesses. The cases will be submitted to the Shasta County District Attorneys Office for prosecution as well as the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for administrative review. Officers cited the following subjects for selling alcohol to a minor.

Jessie J. Petersen, 22 years of Shingletown at the Circle K at 2604 Hilltop Dr.
Fathi Saleh Al Yafai, 60 years of San Francisco at the Chevron at 765 E. Cypress Ave.

This project is part of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's Minor Decoy / Shoulder Tap Grant Project, funded by the California Office of Traffic Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
