On June 6, 2010 at approximately 2:46 p.m., an adult male victim was assaulted inside the Circle K store located at 2245 Hartnell Avenue. During an investigation by Redding Police Department, it was determined this was a gang related assault. For the safety of the victim his name is not being released at this time.

At approximately 4:20 p.m., the victim was driving his vehicle in the 2500 block of Saturn Skyway when he encountered the suspects from the earlier gang related assault. The suspects drove past the victim and one of the occupants fired multiple shots at him with an unknown type handgun. The victim was not struck by the gunfire and fled the area in his vehicle. Redding police officers responded to 911 calls regarding the shooting and were unable to locate the suspects.

The suspects were described as three Hispanic males driving a red 90's model Ford Thunderbird.

Redding Police Department Gang Investigators were called out and are actively investigating the initial assault and subsequent shooting.
