Witness Intimidation/Gang Arrest**
10-63593

On September 22, 2010 at approximately 1:15 p.m. Redding Police Investigators were contacted by a female victim who reported that gang members were threatening her and her boyfriend outside of the Shasta County Probation Department. The male victim is a documented criminal street gang member. The identity of the victims is being withheld for their safety.

The victims were confronted and threatened by several rival street gang members regarding a prior gang related incident. In the previous incident, the victims' lives were threatened by a member of the same rival street gang and court proceedings are pending regarding that incident.

Investigators responded to the probation department and located Darek Streeter, 19 years of Redding, who is a documented criminal street gang member. During the investigation it was determined that Streeter and two other gang members confronted the male victim and threatened him regarding the previous case. Streeter was arrested and ultimately admitted to confronting the victim. Streeter was booked into the Shasta County Jail for intimidating a witness and being a member of a criminal street gang.

While speaking with Streeter, the two additional gang members returned to the location and were contacted by Investigators. Charles Carson 19 years of Redding, who is also documented criminal street gang member, was ultimately arrested for two outstanding warrants and was subsequently booked into Shasta County Jail.
