Suspicious Phone Survey

On September 3, 2010, Redding Police received information regarding a suspicious phone survey where the caller claims to be acting on behalf of the City of Redding. The caller then questions the resident regarding their living arrangements such as do they rent or own their home, what credit cards they utilize and if they are working or retired. The intent of these calls is unknown, however; the City of Redding is not conducting any such survey. Residents are encouraged to disregard these calls and refrain from providing personal information to unknown callers.
